Marina L. Green joined the law firm of Barry, Barall & Spinella, LLC in April 2018. She graduated from Quinnipiac University as the valedictorian of the College of Arts and Sciences in 2011. She received a Faculty Fellows Scholarship to attend Quinnipiac University School of Law, where she earned her Juris Doctorate with honors in 2014. While in law school, she won the law school's intramural moot court competition and successfully argued an appeal to the Appellate Court for the State of Connecticut.

Attorney Green began her career as an Assistant Clerk with the Office of the Appellate Clerk. She then worked at a small firm in Hartford where she practiced appellate law as a special public defender on criminal and child protection appeals.

Attorney Green has experience in criminal and civil litigation, criminal and civil appeals, and workers' compensation. She specializes in researching and briefing complex legal issues.
